THE CHOCTAW COUNCIL.

Prouble Feared if it Declares That Jones

Kawasa Citt. Mo. Oct. 3.—The Times' Tallequan, I. T., says: "The assembling of the Chectaw council occasioned great excitement here today. Action upon the gubernatorial election, during which eight political murders were committed, was the first subject under consideration. Indian Agent Bonnett is on the ground with a company of United States cavalry under orders from Washington to preserve order at all hazards. Nearly all the delegates have come armed. The Jones party has a large majority in the council and will doubtless declare Jones re-elected. Then trouble will follow.

'The Ensign' Draws a Mammoth House Kelly's Sale

It has been many moons since the Salt Lake theatre had such an audience as was present last evening. The pit and the orchestra were packed, while the galleries is superbly mounted, and there is not one is superbly mounted, and there is not one moment from the first curtain until the last that is not full of intense interest. "The Ensign has not been inaptly termed "A 'Held by the Enemy' on Sea," and there are several scenes that remind one of Gillette's famous war story. One thing of especial interest to Salt lakers last evening was the reappearance of Logan Paul, an old-time Salt Laker, but who has not trod the boards in this city for many years. From both a spectacular and historical standpoint, "The Ensign" is a success, and the strong vein of patriotism that runs through it evokes the wildest enthusiasm. "The Ensign goes scala this evening, and closes the season tomorrow sight. There will be no matines.
